Services & Cost > Warranty/Refund Policy

Central Credit Group Inc. warrants the success of its work by offering some or all the client's entire monthly retainer fees back if we are not successful in producing results, positively affecting the client's FICO/credit scores and credit history. After twelve months, if the qualifying client requests it and sends in new credit reports Central Credit Group Inc. will add up each deleted or improved credit listing and will assign a value of $100 to each such item. If that total is not greater than the total monthly fees paid by the client, the difference will be refunded.

This should not be understood to mean that Central Credit Group Inc. would charge its regular fees plus $100 per deleted item. Rather, the $100 per deleted item is simply used as a value to help Central Credit Group Inc. and the client calculate the program's success.

For example, at the end of twelve months you have forwarded credit reports every ninety days and completed your commitments to Central Credit Group Inc. as required by the warranty. You originally had 10 negative listings on each of your credit reports that you wanted removed. Your Experian report deleted 7 listings but 3 still remain, Trans Union deleted 6 listings with 4 remaining, and Equifax deleted 9 and 1 item still remained.

That means:

Bureau	Deleted	Remaining
Experian	7	3
Trans Union	6	4
Equifax	9	1
TOTAL	22	8

Value of deleted items for warranty calculations	22 x $100	$2200.00
You paid in total monthly retainer fees		$1000.00
Amount you get back for the warranty		$0.00

Now, imagine that at the end of twelve months your results were not so good. You have forwarded credit reports every ninety days and completed your commitments to Central Credit Group Inc. but successes were hit and miss with the bureaus. You originally had 12 negative listings on each of your credit reports that you wanted removed. Your Experian report deleted only 3 listings and left 9 remaining, Trans Union 2 deletions with 10 remaining, and Equifax deleted 4 and 8 items still remained.

That means:

Bureau	Deleted	Remaining
Experian	3	9
Trans Union	2	10
Equifax	4	8
TOTAL	9	25

Value of deleted items for warranty calculations	9x $100	$900.00
You paid in total monthly retainer fees		$1000.00
Amount you get back for the warranty		$100.00

While the second example shows results that are very low for someone who has forwarded sufficient credit reports (we can't remember ever seeing a case like this,) it is a good example of how the warranty works. Again, it is important to emphasize that, even when Central Credit Group Inc. gets results far beyond your warranty amount, you do not owe any more money. The warranty valuations are just so that you can feel comfortable in knowing that Central Credit Group Inc. has a stake in helping you to achieve a high level of success.

As you see, we only get paid for results, so you have absolute peace of mind knowing that we are doing everything that our years of experience has taught us to do in effectively causing positive change in your FICO/credit scores and your credit history. If you have very few negative items when you begin the service, so that if all were deleted the value would still not equal the warranty value, then your negative items will be assigned a new value equal to your total retainer fees divided by the total number of negative items.

'Consumer Credit File Rights Under State and Federal Law'

You have a right to dispute inaccurate information in your credit report by contacting the credit bureau directly. However, neither you nor any "credit repair" company or credit repair organization has the right to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. The credit bureau must remove accurate, negative information from your report only if it is over 7 years old. Bankruptcy information can be reported for 10 years.

You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit report from a credit bureau. You may be charged a reasonable fee. There is no fee, however, if you have been turned down for credit, employment, insurance, or a rental dwelling because of information in your credit report within the preceding 60 days. The credit bureau must provide someone to help you interpret the information in your credit file. You are entitled to receive a free copy of your credit report if you are unemployed and intend to apply for employment in the next 60 days, if you are a recipient of public welfare assistance, or if you have reason to believe that there is inaccurate information in your credit report due to fraud.

You have a right to sue a credit repair organization that violates the Credit Repair Organization Act. This law prohibits deceptive practices by credit repair organizations.

You have the right to cancel your contract with any credit repair organization for any reason within 3 business days from the date you signed it.

Credit bureaus are required to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the information they report is accurate. However, mistakes may occur.

You may, on your own, notify a credit bureau in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your credit file. The credit bureau must then reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate or incomplete information. The credit bureau may not charge any fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit bureau.

If the credit bureau's reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a brief statement to the credit bureau, to be kept in your file, explaining why you think the record is inaccurate. The credit bureau must include a summary of your statement about disputed information with any report it issues about you.

The Federal Trade Commission regulates credit bureaus and credit repair organizations.
